Turn Right Next Corner

The Biggest Little Town in Kansas

Macpherson

Red sun setting flat plains west streaked with gauzy veils, chimney mist spread around christmas-tree-bulbed refineries—aluminum white tanks squat beneath winking signal towers' bright plane-lights, orange gas flares beneath pillows of smoke, flames in machinery—transparent towers at dusk

In advance of the Cold Wave

Snow is spreading eastward to the Great Lakes

News Broadcast & old clarinets

Watertower dome Lighted on the flat plain car radio speeding acrost railroad tracks—

Kansas! Kansas! Shuddering at last!

PERSON appearing in Kansas!

angry telephone calls to the University Police dumbfounded leaning on their radiocar hoods

While Poets chant to Allah in the roadhouse Showboat!

Blue eyed children dance and hold thy Hand O aged Walt who came from Lawrence to Topeka to envision Iron interlaced upon the city plain—

Telegraph wires strung from city to city O Melville!

Television brightening thy rills of Kansas lone

I come, lone man from the void, riding a bus hypnotized by red tail lights on the straight space road ahead—

& the Methodist minister with cracked eyes leaning over the table quoting Kierkegaard “death of God” a million dollars in the bank owns all West Wichita come to Nothing!

EMPTINESS—

Thy sins are forgiven, Wichita!
Thy lonesomeness annulled, O Kansas dear! as the western Twang prophesied thru banjo, when lone cowboy walked the railroad track past an empty station toward the sun sinking giant-bulbed orange down the box canyon—Music strung over his back and empty handed singing on this planet earth I'm a lonely Dog, O Mother!

Come, Nebraska, sing & dance with me—Come lovers of Lincoln and Omaha, hear my soft voice at last As Babes need the chemical touch of flesh in pink infancy lest they die Idiot returning to Inhuman—Nothing—

So, tender lipped adolescent girl, pale youth, give me back my soft kiss Hold me in your innocent arms, accept my tears as yours to harvest equal in nature to the Wheat that made your bodies' muscular bones broad shouldered, boy bicept—from leaning on cows & drinking Milk in Midwest Solitude—No more fear of tenderness, much delight in weeping, ecstasy in singing, laughter rises that confounds staring Idiot mayors and stony politicians eyeing Thy breast,
O Man of America, be born!

Truth breaks through!
How big is the prick of the President?
How big is Cardinal Vietnam?
How little the prince of the FBI, unmarried all these years!
How big are all the Public Figures?
What kind of flesh hangs, hidden behind their Images?

Dinosaur Sinclair advertisement, glowing green—South 9th Street lined with poplar & elm branch spread over evening's tiny headlights—Salina Highschool's brick darkens Gothic over a night-lit door—What wreaths of naked bodies, thighs and faces, small hairy bun'd vaginas, silver cocks, armpits and breasts moistened by tears for 20 years, for 40 years?
Peking Radio surveyed by Luden's Coughdrops Attacks on the Russians & Japanese, Big Dipper leaning above the Nebraska border, handle down to the blackened plains, telephone-pole ghosts crossed by roadside, dim headlights—dark night, & giant T-bone steaks, and in The Village Voice New Frontier Productions present Camp Comedy: Fairies I Have Met.
Blue highway lamps strung along the horizon east at Hebron Homestead National Monument near Beatrice—

Language, language
 black Earth-circle in the rear window, no cars for miles along highway beacon lights on ceramic plain language, language
 over Big Blue River chanting La illaha el (ill) Allah hu revolving my head to my heart like my mother chin abreast at Allah Eyes closed, blackness vaster than midnight prairies, Nebraskas of solitary Allah, Joy, I am I the lone One singing to myself God come true—Thrills of fear.
 nearer than the vein in my neck—?
What if I opened my soul to sing to my absolute self Singing as the car crash chomped thru blood & muscle tendon skull?
What if I sang, and loosed the chords of fear brow?
 What exquisite noise wd Shiver my car companions?

I am the Universe tonite riding in all my Power riding chauffeured thru my self by a long haired saint with eyeglasses What if I sang till Students knew I was free of Vietnam, trousers, free of my own meat, free to die in my thoughtful shivering Throne? freer than Nebraska, freer than America—May I disappear in magic Joy-smoke! Pouf! reddish Vapor, Faustus vanishes weeping & laughing under stars on Highway 77 between Beatrice & Lincoln—“Better not to move but let things be” Reverend Preacher?
We’ve all already disappeared!

Space highway open, entering Lincoln’s ear ground to a stop Tracks Warning Pioneer Boulevard—
William Jennings Bryan sang Thou shalt not crucify mankind upon a cross of Gold!
O Baby Doe! Gold’s
Department Store hulk o’er 10th Street now --an unregenerate old fop who didn’t want to be a monkey now’s the Highest Perfect Wisdom dust and Lindsay’s cry Survives compassionate in the Highschool Anthology—a giant dormitory brilliant on the evening plain drifts with his memories—There’s a nice white door over there for me O dear! on Zero Street.

said the giant President

Kansas City Times 2 / 14 / 66: “Word reached U.S. authorities that Thailand’s leaders feared that in Honolulu Johnson might have tried to persuade South Vietnam's rulers to ease their stand against negotiating with the Viet Cong.

American officials said these fears were groundless and Humphrey was telling the Thais so."

Language

While this American nation argues war: conflicting language, language proliferating in airwaves filling the farmhouse ear, filling the City Manager's head in his oaken office the professor's head in his bed at midnight the pupil's head at the movies blond haired, his heart throbbing with desire for the girlish image bodied on the screen: or smoking cigarettes and watching Captain Kangaroo that fabled damned of nations prophecy come true—

Though the highway's straight, dipping downward through low hills, rising narrow on the far horizon black cows browse in caked fields ponds in the hollows lie frozen, quietness.

Is this the land that started war on China?
 This be the soil that thought Cold War for decades?
 Are these nervous naked trees & farmhouses the vortex of oriental anxiety molecules that've imagined American Foreign Policy and magick'd up paranoia in Peking and curtains of living blood surrounding far Saigon?

Are these the towns where the language emerged from the mouths here that makes a Hell of riots in Dominica sustains the aging tyranny of Chiang in silent Taipeh city Paid for the lost French war in Algeria overthrew the Guatemalan polis in '54 maintaining United Fruit's banana greed another thirteen years for the secret prestige of the Dulles family lawfirm?

Here's Marysville—
 a black railroad engine in the children's park, at rest—and the Track Crossing with Cotton Belt flatcars carrying autos west from Dallas Delaware & Hudson gondolas filled with power stuff—a line of boxcars far east as the eye can see carrying battle goods to cross the Rockies into the hands of rich longshoremens loading ships on the Pacific—Oakland Army Terminal lights blue illumined all night now—Crash of couplings and the great American train moves on carrying its cushioned load of metal doom Union Pacific linked together with your Hoosier Line followed by passive Wabash rolling behind all Erie carrying cargo in the rear, Central Georgia's rust colored truck proclaiming The Right Way, concluding the awesome poem writ by the train across northern Kansas, land which gave right of way to the massing of metal meant for explosion in Indochina—

Passing thru Waterville, Electronic machinery in the bus humming prophecy—paper signs blowing in cold wind, mid-Sunday afternoon's silence in town under frost-gray sky that covers the horizon—That the rest of earth is unseen, Unknown except thru
language
airprint magic images or prophecy of the secret heart the same in Waterville as Saigon one human form: When a woman's heart bursts in Waterville a woman screams equal in Hanoi—On to Wichita to prophesy! O frightful Bard! into the heart of the Vortex where anxiety rings the University with millionaire pressure, lonely crank telephone voices sighing in dread and students waken trembling in their beds with dreams of a new truth warm as meat, little girls suspecting their elders of murder committed by remote control machinery, boys with sexual bellies aroused chilled in the heart by the mailman with a letter from an aging white haired General

Director of selection for service in Deathwar all this black language writ by machine!
O hopeless Fathers and Teachers the same woe too?

I'm an old man now, and a lonesome man in Kansas but not afraid to speak my lonesomeness in a car, because not only my lonesomeness it's Ours, all over America, O tender fellows—& spoken lonesomeness is Prophecy in the moon 100 years ago or in the middle of Kansas now.

It's not the vast plains mute our mouths that fill at midnite with ecstatic language when our trembling bodies hold each other breast to breast on a mattress—Not the empty sky that hides the feeling from our faces nor our skirts and trousers that conceal the bodylove emanating in a glow of beloved skin, white smooth abdomen down to the hair between our legs,

It's not a God that bore us that forbid our Being, like a sunny rose all red with naked joy between our eyes & bellies, yes

All we do is for this frightened thing we call Love, want and lack—fear that we aren't the one whose body could be beloved of all the brides of Kansas City, kissed all over by every boy of Wichita—O but how many in their solitude weep aloud like me—On the bridge over Republican River almost in tears to know how to speak the right language—on the frosty broad road uphill between highway embankments I search for the language that is also yours—almost all our language has been taxed by war.

Radio antennae high tension wires ranging from Junction City across the plains—highway cloverleaf sunk in a vast meadow lanes curving past Abilene to Denver filled with old heroes of love—to Wichita where McClure's mind burst into animal beauty drunk, getting laid in a car in a neon misted street 15 years ago—to Independence where the old man's still alive who loosed the bomb that's slaved all human consciousness and made the body universe a place of fear—Now, speeding along the empty plain, no giant demon machine visible on the horizon but tiny human trees and wooden houses at the sky's edge I claim my birthright! reborn forever as long as Man in Kansas or other universe—Joy reborn after the vast sadness of War Gods!

A lone man talking to myself, no house in the brown vastness to hear imaging the throng of Selves that make this nation one body of Prophecy languaged by Declaration as Pursuit of Happiness!
I call all Powers of imagination to my side in this auto to make Prophecy, all Lords of human kingdoms to come Shambu Bharti Baba naked covered with ash Khaki Baba fat-bellied mad with the dogs Dehorahava Baba who moans Oh how wounded, How wounded Sitaram Onkar Das Thakur who commands

I here declare the end of the War!
Ancient days' Illusion!— and pronounce words beginning my own millennium.
Let the States tremble, let the nation weep, let the President execute his own desire—this Act done by my own voice, nameless Mystery—published to my own senses, blissfully received by my own form approved with pleasure by my sensations manifestation of my very thought accomplished in my own imagination all realms within my consciousness fulfilled
